

There was close collaboration with the client on every detail of this project to ensure the updated living areas reflected the client's modern style, while satisfying their functional needs and creating a comfortable space the family could entertain in.

rising star singular space living & door Komal Sheth, Allied Member ASID, Spaces Designed

rising star singular entire project - remodel
Komal Sheth, Allied Member ASID, Spaces Designed

The goal of this project was to convert a dark, traditional house into a bright, inviting, design-driven space that is comfortable, yet sophisticated. The dark interior was brightened up to create a zoned entertainment space with natural ambient lighting, recycled maple wood floors, and light earthen colors.